SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

FIVE (5) YEARS

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: NESBITT WALL
CASE NUMBER: 4:18-cr-00232-JM-1STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

CASE NUMBER: 4:18-cr-00232-JM-1

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

14) The defendant must participate in sex offender treatment under the guidance and supervision of the probation office and follow the rules and regulations of that program, including submitting to periodic polygraph testing to aid in the treatment and supervision process. The defendant must pay for the cost of treatment, including polygraph sessions, at the rate of $10 per session, with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. If the defendant is financially unable to pay for the cost of treatment, the co-pay requirement will be waived.

15) The defendant must not view or possess any "visual depiction" (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256) including any photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of "sexually explicit conduct" (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256), or any other material that would compromise the defendant's sex offense-specific treatment.

16) The defendant must not enter adult bookstores, strip clubs, or adult sex-themed entertainment businesses, or any establishments where such material or entertainment is available.

17) The defendant must not possess or use computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, except with the prior approval of the probation officer.

18) The defendant must not access the internet except for reasons approved in advance by the probation officer.

19) The defendant must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) that he uses.

20) To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, the defendant must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. These searches will be conducted to determine whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software, whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation, and whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. The defendant must warn any other people who use the computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

21) The defendant must not participate in online gaming. The defendant must not utilize or maintain any memberships or accounts of any social networking website or websites that allow minor children membership, a profile, an account, or webpage without approval of the probation office. This includes websites that explicitly prohibit access or use by sex offenders.

22) The defendant must submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

23) The probation office will provide state officials with all information required under any sexual predator and sexual offender notification and registration statutes and may direct the defendant to report to these agencies personally for required additional processing, such as an interview and assessment, photographing, fingerprinting, polygraph testing, and DNA collection.

24) The defendant must not use any sexually stimulating drug unless specifically prescribed by a doctor who has been notified of the defendant's sex offender status. The defendant must allow the probation office to verify such notification.

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 25) The defendant must not have direct contact with any child that he knows or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18 without the permission of the probation officer. If the defendant does have any direct contact with a child he knows or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18 without the permission of the probation officer, he must report this contact to the probation officer within 24 hours. Direct contact includes written communication, in-person communication, or physical contact. Direct contact does not include incidental contact during ordinary daily activities in public places.
- 26) The defendant must not go to, or remain at, any place where he knows children under the age of 18 are likely to be, including parks, schools, playgrounds, and childcare facilities.
- 27) The defendant must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information (including unexpected financial gains) and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
- 28) The defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer unless all criminal penalties have been satisfied.
